

Hingham Playgroup

Hingham Playgroup Mission Statement

Aims and Objectives of the group

We aim as a group to enable your child to develop his or her own ability to their fullest potential in the following areas; Intellectually, Physically and Creatively. We also encourage their character and personality within the group. We aim to do this with support and cooperation, in partnership with parents.

Partnership with parents

We welcome parent's suggestions and comments. If you wish to express your satisfaction with the group, please see the Chairperson or Leading Practitioner, who would value your comments. When or if, you are dissatisfied please follow the same procedure as above. We value comments, complaints and praise within group, to help us offer you a quality practice.

Staff commitment to training

The playgroup staffs continue to be committed to extending their knowledge, experience, skills and qualification. To achieve this, all staff regularly updates training, through training programmes and higher education when available. Staffs undergo yearly appraisals to analyse their personal development. Details of staff qualifications, roles and responsibilities can be found in the staffing file and operational plan.

Staff: Leading Practitioner – Nicola Hindle

Assistant leading practitioner – Paula Willmott
